

Architecture & Layout

The city's famed triple-wall defense separates outer, inner, and sovereign regions. Buildings follow strict municipal zoning—residences, commerce, education, and worship never overlap. Rooftops of slate blue and deep red signal order through visual hierarchy. Roads are straight, district entrances arched and flanked with stone guards, and trees are planted to mathematically optimal intervals.

Revision #1

Created 18 June 2025 12:42:14 by Gadget

Updated 18 June 2025 12:42:24 by Gadget